3. Does rate of delivery play a large role in your determination of which debater wins the round?
   - Yes
   - No

4. How important is the criteria debate in determining the winner of the round (circle only one)?
   - It is the primary means by which I make my decision.
   - It is a major factor in my evaluation.
   - It may be a factor depending on its use in the round.
   - It rarely informs my decision
   - I do not feel that a value and criterion are required elements of a case.

5. Circle the number below that best fits your philosophy on LD debate:
   - Coverage; Line-by-Line Analysis
   - Depth; Key Voting Issues

   1 ........................................  2 ........................................  3

6. I usually select the winner of the round by determining (circle only one):
   - the better, more persuasive speaker regardless of the arguments he or she won.
   - the debater who won the most arguments in the round.
   - the debater who won the key arguments in the round.
