

International Extemporaneous Speaking

Maximum time limit: 7 minutes (A description of the event is on the back) Speakers will report at staggered intervals. No notes permitted after January 1.

Criteria for Evaluation

Please place the letter representing the appropriate rating in each blank below:

S [Superior]

E [Excellent]

G [Good]

F [Fair]

___ Introduction: Catches the audience's attention; thesis establishes central idea of speech.

___ Body: Speaker narrows topic sufficiently; adheres to topic; supports thesis with clear and appropriate development of ideas, examples, and authoritative citations.

___ Structure: Distinct introduction, body and conclusion. Transitions effectively move the audience from one element of the speech to the next.

___ Conclusion: Summarizes main points; leaves audience with clear understanding of central idea of speech.

___ Language: Speaker uses words accurately, appropriately, and effectively.

___ Delivery: Speaker projects and articulates well; develops audience rapport; uses appropriate facial, bodily and vocal expression; is fluent and free of unnecessary hesitation; displays poise and self-confidence.

Comments

Speaker's Code _____ Topic _____

Rank (Please circle one; NO ties allowed): 1st 2nd 3rd 4th 5th 6th 7th

Overall Rating (Please circle one; ties are permissible): SUPERIOR EXCELLENT GOOD FAIR

Time _____

Judge _____

Signature